Description:

This database is an index to individuals enumerated in the 1900 United States Federal Census, the Twelfth Census of the United States. Census takers recorded many details including each person's name, address, relationship to the head of household, color or race, sex, month and year of birth, age at last birthday, marital status, number of years married, the total number of children born of the mother, the number of those children living, birthplace, birthplace of father and mother, if the individual was foreign born, the year of immigration and the number of years in the United States, the citizenship status of foreign-born individuals over age twenty-one, occupation, and more. Additionally, the names of those listed on the population schedule are linked to actual images of the 1900 Federal Census.

On this 21st day of July 1911 at Vidler, Mobile Co, Ala, before me Chas. G. Townsend Special Examiner of the Pension Bureau appeared Hansford Dossett who being duly sworn to answer truly all questions asked him during the special examination of his pension claim deposes and says: - My age is nearly 74; farmer; residence near Vidler, Ala, which is my post office address. I am a pensioner of U. S. at $65 per month under act of Feb. 6, 1907 under above named. I was living in Jones Co., Miss near Ellisville when War broke out. I was living with my mother and farming. About 10 or 11 months after the War came on they were getting up a regiment about Ellisville and, while I did not want to go, I had to; some conscripting officer came and notified me that I had to enlist. I was given choice of regiments and I chose the 7th Miss. Vol. Inf. My uncle, also named Hansford Dossett, who had been Sheriff of the County, was the 1st Captain. His name named Prince was my uncle got to be in command afterwards. We went to Chattanooga and Knoxville, Tenn. and was around that country all time I was in said regiment; did not get in any battles. I finally left the regiment without discharge picked up of my own accord; man named Pitman (Jim) and his father and I left at same time and went down home to Jones Co., Miss; I was around there maybe 6 months when they got after me for desertion; if they had got me they would have killed me. So I went to New Orleans and enlisted. These are the facts about my Confederate service. I think statement of same was made in my application for pension but I am not sure.

I am correctly reported herein

Dear Patricia,

I will be glad to do whatever I can to help with your "Who Married Whom" series. Publications on southeast Mississippi are certainly needed! However, I don't have very much (though not from lack of searching.)

I descend from William Dossett, who arrived in Marion County from SC in time for the 1820 census. He is on the 1825 tax list there, but from ^{the} 1830 census until his death in 1856, he is in Jones County. His daughter Martha Ann married William James Hamilton in 1840; and while they lived just across the line in Covington County until their deaths in ¹⁸⁵⁸ 1860, some of their children probably lived in Jones County. My grandfather, John Warren Rush, married their younger daughter in 1867 and their older daughter in 1869. They probably lived in northern Perry County, very near the Jones County line. John Warren Rush's father, Jeptha Rush, died in 1851 near Moseley. His wife was Lydia Dickerson (earlier Dickeson, Dickinson). Her father was Willis Dickerson, and I know the spouses of all his children, though not the marriage dates.

Send me your lists or charts, and I'll see what I can do.

There are two Hansford D. Dossetts
Not sure which one this is. Think it may be the uncle (Sheriff of Jones
